A workshop on building inclusion at school

JOIN US for this FREE workshop to learn more about inclusive education and how to navigate the school system for your child with disability.

Our independent organisation is fully funded so we can offer these important workshops at no cost to you.

This Workshop is for families of children with disability in or approaching the school years, and will cover:

- Inclusive education - what is it and how will I know when it's real?
- Adjustments - reasonable and practical classroom strategies
- Communication, collaboration and planning - building a good school relationship
- Meetings - skills and strategies to advocate effectively
- Education and beyond - what do we want from our child's schooling?
- How the school years can lead to a meaningful life

"This workshop was pivotal, it helped me make sure we had a clear vision around what his life would be, and that we remained vigilant in our advocacy to see those good things in life for Jacob."
